Course Description: Come and slay the dragon of difficult books! In this course of battle, we will forge our swords out of prefixes, suffixes and roots of words. We will have sword (word) drills on quizlet.com. We will then test these newly formed swords (words) weekly. We will also study "Pilgrim's Progress" to bring those words alive and help arm you with the warfare of life. Being equipped, these skills will help you battle the ACT/SAT tests or any long-winded, rhetorical book you will have to conquer.
