

English III & IV Lit & Comp

Instructor: Tracy Talbott

Grade: 11th & 12th

2 Semester Course

Fees: $30 monthly tuition fee plus a one time $20 copy/supply fee (non-refundable)

Text: Buy books used

Can be purchased through amazon.com, abebooks.com or any other website

Students will need 3-ring binder with paper & dividers.

Will also need access to computer/printer/weekly.

The Allyn & Bacon Guide to Writing 6th Ed

The Blue Book of Grammar & Punctuation 10th or 11th ed by Jane Straus. You can download it for free at this link, however I think it would be easier to purchase one. If you have more than one child taking my classes, they can share this book.

<https://cvdvn.files.wordpress.com/2018/05/blue-book-of-grammar.pdf>

Great Expectations by Charles Dickens ISBN: 0486415864

Martin Luther: A Man Who Rediscovered God & Changed the World by Eric Metaxas

7 Men & 7 Women: And the Secret of Their Greatness by Eric Metaxas

Much Ado About Nothing (No Fear Shakespeare Ed) by Sparknotes

Course Description:

This course aims to develop and expand the student's ability to read critically by studying various works of literature. Special emphasis will be placed on literary analysis, annotation, reading and writing skills, and vocabulary development. Writing will be more advanced in this course to prepare for collegiate type writing.